

Dear Felipe,

I have great pleasure in informing you that Arizon Abogados SLP have been successfully chosen as the winner of the Corporate Intl Magazine 2011 Global Award for:

“Trade & Commodity Disputes Law Firm of the Year in Spain”

As the award winner I am also able to invite the firm to take part within our ‘Legal Awards Supplement’, which will be our awards publication distributed alongside the forthcoming edition of ‘Corporate INTL Magazine’. The supplement will be made available to over 70,000 recipients of the publication; it will also be placed on our website www.corp-intl.com. We will be sending the supplement to our monthly newsletter recipients of over 280,000+ individuals, so that they can view the entire supplement online in an instant. In short the ‘Legal Awards Supplement’ will receive immense coverage and if you choose to be involved your firm will enjoy superb exposure promoting your award win.

We are allowing the award winners to profile their expertise in more detail within the supplement. This ensures that you can emphasize the expertise you offer in your winning category, so that the recipients and viewers of the supplement can gain a better understanding of your capabilities and the reasons why you have been successfully chosen. I would seriously recommend you take this into consideration if you are keen to showcase this major achievement to clients, prospective clients and your peers via the powerful Corporate INTL brand.

The editorial profile option will include:

- Editorial about your expertise in your winning category (800 words for a full page)
- Firm’s Logo/Brand prominent on the page
- Contact details, (phone numbers, email, web and postal addresses)
- Photographs of the key member/s of the team (optional)

There are three options for you to choose from:

1. Half page editorial profile or advertisement - £650 GBP
2. Full page editorial profile or advertisement - £1,000 GBP
3. Full page editorial profile & full page advert - £1,500 GBP

In order to confirm your agreement to be included within the supplement please reply to this email with the option you would like to proceed with, 'Option 1', 'Option 2' or 'Option 3'

If you are happy to move forward with one of the above options then I can have either our journalists or graphic design team work with you on your inclusion and ensure that you can make any amendments that you deem appropriate before we publish the supplement. Our in-house graphic design team will be happy to work with you on the production of the advertisement for no extra charge if you would prefer that inclusion option.

You are now able to promote this fantastic success and if you would like a winners logo to use on your website, emails or other company literature, please confirm your involvement in the awards supplement and I will ensure that various formats of the awards logo are sent to you.

Once again I would like to congratulate you and the firm on this accomplishment and hope that you choose to maximize on the exposure we can provide to help further promote your success.

Kindest Regards,

Alex Hamblin Global Awards Administrator
